The Making of A Docu-Drama

Dr. Tom Nash: "How we made a film about a Manson Family killer"

Charles "Tex" Watson and Charles Manson

During Club Vice President Tom Nash's 26 years teaching film-making at Biola University he was involved in producing many short films. Certainly the most unusual and challenging film he ever produced was the story of Charles "Tex" Watson, one of the "Manson Family." Tom will describe how and why they took on the project, why they decided on a docu-drama (versus a documentary), what it was like meeting with Charles Watson in prison. He will also show some clips from the film.
