"We will both speak about why our Club was born, what we have done in our first year of existence and what are our plans for the future. We will also speak about the importance of creating opportunities for Clubs to work together." -- Rebecca Gilad

Club Vision: "To promote respect, understanding, inclusion and community harmony among people of all backgrounds through dialogue, education, advocacy and cultural exchange." "One Song," described below, was a major CBB project in March, 2024. Currently CBB is producing a dramatic video on "Agism" with Village TV.

CBB founder Rebecca Gilad, originally from Mexico, was a professional TV producer in Israel, where she met her husband, Ari. They live in Laguna Woods Village. Willie Phillips is Vice President of the African American Heritage Club.
